The National Association for Law Placement, The National Association for Law Placement : National Directory of Legal Employers, 2000-2001 Edition before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised National Directory of Legal Employers, 2000-2001 Edition:

5 of 6 people found the following review helpful. Very necessaryBy A Customerthe National Directory of Legal Employers is definitely a necessity for anyone thinking of going into the legal business. It's widely recognized in the profession as the authoritative resource. I'd only say that because it's so comprehensive, it sometimes doesn't quite get into the details enough. I'd recommend something like the Vault Reports Top 50 Law Firms, which gives a great idea of what it's like to go work for a law firm, whether out of college or as a lateral hire. It's less comprehensive, but much more detailed and a fun read.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. essentialBy A CustomerNext to the "Vault Guide to the Top 100 Law Firms", this directory is the most essential guide for a legal job search.

The National Directory of Legal Employers brings you a universe of vital information about one thousand of the nation's top legal employers-in one convenient volume!
