Completely worthless in terms of helping teens. There are pages to write a letter to your future self, and ummm, that is about it...there are even blank pages in the page count.It would be better to google career advice from a monkey, than purchase this book.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. I would recommend it to othersBy Cheryl L SpearThis workbook was very helpful for my teen. I would recommend it to others.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. A Useful ToolBy maximeIt's a great tool to use in my teen career workshop. I currently teach 7th graders. My principal would like me to use this workbook with the students. With guidance, this workbook is very useful.

Teenagers examine themselves to find a career path that would be meaningful to them; for which theyd be willing to put in the work happily and passionately. The workbook focuses on what's important: the teenagers ability to make decisions about their future. Teenagers can be ready for their next level with guidance not dictation! About the AuthorDiahann Darwod-Antoine aka Mrs. Darwood aka Mrs. Antoine is a lover of writing and has been since she was 14 years old. Her three children are her biggest inspiration for writing. Her many students and nature also mover her to write. This work is inspired by her oldest son who has his own successful bakery in New York. They worked together, he made decisions, then her teen put in the work required to live the life he wants. Diahann learned from her life and her son's experience, that informed decisions about a future career are better than guess work. She also learned that a personal work ethic is key to success! Diahann uses these life altering experiences, along with research to create a simple workbook designed specifically for teenagers. Contact by Email dfdarwoodwrites@gmail.com
