Book by Canfield, Clarke

Now Hiring!: Jobs In Eastern Europe provides the most current information about life and work in the Eastern European countries of the Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland, and Slovakia for the serious adventurer. Seasoned traveler Clarke Canfield provides informed advice on deciding to go, how to prepare, getting there, finding accommodations, and getting a job. For each country he covers, Canfield also provides information on finding a teaching position, settling into a new home, and general city profiles. He also provides information on the politics, history, geography, and customs of each country. Now Hiring!: Jobs In Eastern Europe includes a detailed discussion of the pros and cons of teaching English as a second language, sample lesson plans and helpful teaching tips. Each country section has an up-to-date list of language schools that hire native speakers and presents other employment options. -- Midwest Book
