Young people in Need of Financial Management Course By Mary Queen Donnelly OYO has been happily embraced by teachers and students who used Skills for Consumer Success. Students respond naturally to the digital version.

This activity-based simulation depicts a recent high school graduate finding out what it means to be on their own financially. The simulation allows students to experience the process of opening a checking account, renting an apartment, applying for credit, looking for a job, buying a car, shopping online, banking electronically, paying taxes, and more. Students complete parallel activities for themselves as they work through the simulation, completing budgets and creating filing systems for personal financial information.
