PopOut Maps : Oslo PopOut Map (PopOut Maps) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Oslo PopOut Map (PopOut Maps):

It's very convenient to have this map, even with Google Maps, as phones can act funny, and it shows important places so you can plan your day out without even taking out your phone or laptop. Also, if the phone dies, it is great to have a backup for safety. Especially in Norway where you'll be hiking and walking all day to see all the beauty. It folds up to a tiny little space but really offers quite a large map of the city that any tourist could appreciate. Definitely 5 stars as I used it a lot, and then a friend came into town who took it from me and used it almost exclusively to get around. Nowadays it's great to have something like this so you can leave your phone in your pocket and enjoy life. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Convenient size By Jody Ferland Good map, has most streets you need. Nice size. Did rip when wet. Better transportation map (larger, easier to read) available at the visitors center for free, but I used this map a lot to get around by foot during my 4 days in Oslo. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. 5 maps in one By Inger Nice compact map (5 maps actually) of Oslo that folds to the same size as a passport cover. Tiny writing required wearing readers for my aging eyes but all the major attractions are covered. Our hotel had a free map of the city but this was nice to have and easier to manage because of its size.
