basic information on how to become a realtor, even though the author says "part time" but once you pass the exam and get your real estate license, it is truly up to you to decide if you want to do it full or part time. After reading this book, I looked it up and there are few online schools that anyone can enroll and depending on which state you are in, it can cost you around $300 and up, I even found a coupon that gave me a $100 discount. Anyone that is wondering about how to become an agent should read this book. Also before enrolling to any school, search and see if you can find any online coupon to save you a few bucks. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Part-time real estate agent startup by David Newman is a guide book that can show one how to become a realtor, but it is not a study guide. Looking at previous reviews I almost didnt buy the book but figured since I am seeking to start part time basis, I would give the book a try. I am glad I did. Seeing the last review about typos and spelling mistakes being an English teacher (my full-time job) I thought it would be fun to see how many I could find, but I didnt find any. If you are in the US or Canada, I think this book shows you the path to become a Realtor whether you are looking to do it full or part time. Overall a good book and cheap too. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. meh

It has some good info. But he needs to learn about spellcheck; and its a very thin book. Don't expect inspiration or new info in here. He actually makes it seem a bit harder than it really is to become an agent. Don't pay a lot if you purchase this.

How I Went From Bartending to Be a Successful Realtor
My name is David Newman; I was born and raised in Pensacola, Florida. I started bartending back in 2003 and took it as a profession; I was making around $3500 a month, and I was content. But things started to change once I started my family. I found myself helpless as we were trying to take care of our son's illness and was looking for a 2nd and even a 3rd job to make ends meet. During this time I met this well-dressed older couple, they came to our restaurant for some food and drinks, as we were just talking; I told them my situation, and they were very sympathetic, before leaving the gentleman left me a good tip and his business card told me to call him the next day. Looking at the card, I noticed he was a realtor broker. I met him for lunch the next day, and he asked me if I would be interested in becoming a realtor part time. I found out I could become a licensed realtor for under $300 and in just 3 months. Long story short, I am a realtor now for last few years, and I have helped few friends including my wife to become realtors. I do it full time now, and I made little over $143,000 last year. I know this if I could do this anyone can, so this is for you, just follow what I outlined in this book and you will be successful as long as you are dedicated, serious and commit to doing this.

I got motivated to become a real estate agent when I met David the first time at an open house, I was surprised when he sent me this book via email with a note that said follow this and you will be fine. I took his advice and I am glad I did, I just passed my prelicense exam last week- Thanks sooo much David" - J. Mathias
