Rhonda Klevansky : The Encyclopedia of Elephants, Big Cats, Bears Whales before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Encyclopedia of Elephants, Big Cats, Bears Whales:

Prowling and pawing the pages of this book are the world's most fascinating and compelling large creatures. Eight- to twelve-year-olds can learn all about their super senses, diverse habitats, diets, child-rearing, rituals, migrations, hunting, and other complex forms of behaviour through fascinating text, great graphics and hundreds of superb close-up colour photographs.
