Loren Auerbach, Professor Anne M. Birrell, Rev. Dr Martin Boord, Miranda Bruce-Mitford, Peter A. Clayton, Dr Ray Dunning, Dr James H. Grayson, Dr Niel Gunson, Stephen Hodge, Dr Gwendolyn Leick : The Encyclopedia of World Mythology before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Encyclopedia of World Mythology:

First published in 1999, printed in 2002. A collection of stories passed down from ancient peoples, both past and present which have influenced greatly our language, religions and customs in many parts of the world. Beautiful photographs in color. An authoritative and accessible reference work for all the family. Covers all aspects of global mythology: religions, beliefs, customs and rituals. Features on the gods, themes, characters and art in each mythology. Packed with over 400 illustrations, including maps of each region.
