Fairchild Books Editors : The Fairchild Directory of Fashion Schools before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Fairchild Directory of Fashion Schools:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. DisappointingBy Beth S.The first section listed many schools that have a fashion design or marketing program. The second section gave more information about schools, but only based on material provided by the schools. This section did not cover all of the schools, including several we wanted to know more about. It apparently did not interview students or look at ratings from various sources. The author apparently did not even look at the school's websites to get information. I recommend it only if you need something very basic, but suggest that you do your own research on the web to find out more about all of the schools that interest you, and to flesh out information about schools named in the first part, but not covered in the second part.
