Scott Siegel, Barbara Siegel : The Guinness Encyclopedia of Hollywood before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Guinness Encyclopedia of Hollywood:

"The Guinness Encyclopedia of Hollywood" is an A-Z of the heroes, heroines and history of American film. From comedies to thrillers, musicals to spine-chillers, "The Guinness Encyclopedia of Hollywood" is a celebration of the American film industry from its humble beginnings, through the glamour and glitter of the 30s and 40s to the blockbusters of today. An A-Z listing of nearly 700 entries gives details of the actors directors, studios, writers and cameramen who have given us the best and the worst Tinsel Town has to offer, as well as covering film genres technical terms and the classic and cult films that have been the mainstay of the Hollywood movie scene. An all-in-one who's who, critical guide and intriguing history. "The Guinness Encyclopedia of Hollywood" is the ultimate reference book for every filmgoer.
