Five StarsBy Danielle BrownLoved this book... Being from NOLA. It was nice to see my family and friends in this book too1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great insightBy Susan in FloridaLoved this book. Great pictures and descriptions of a culture and way of life that I hope is preserved forever.

In the Lower Ninth Ward of New Orleans, Ronald W. Lewis has assembled a museum to the various worlds he inhabits. Built in 2003, the House of Dance Feathers represents many New Orleans societies: Mardi Gras Indians, Social Aid and Pleasure Clubs, Bone Gangs, and Parade Krewes. More than just a catalogue of the artifacts in the museum, this full-color book is a detailed map of these worlds as experienced by Ronald W. Lewis.
