

accidentally set his backpack in some snow at the bus stop and ruined that one, we were surprised it now is so much smaller/more compact. This latest edition is easily half the size of the one he borrowed, which was a few years old. Should have really paid attention to that in the description, as at first we weren't sure we had received the correct title. It turns out, after careful inspection and side-by-side comparison of both editions, to have the same content as the old edition, for the most part, with some tricks removed, while others have added to, revised or updated. Great, clear photos and easy-to-read text, with excellent instructions on how to perform and perfect each trick. Perfect for kids in Grades 4-6, and I'd also say for adults just starting to learn sleight of hand and beginner/easy to remember card tricks. Our son loved it; as soon as it was entered back into circulation, he borrowed it again and easily and quickly learned a few new tricks, with which he's already amazed our neighbors' younger kids. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Mike Seen this book in the library Nd had to have it. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Gift for Budding Magician By Bob Veatch This was a birthday gift or our seven year old grandson. He had found a copy at his local library and didn't want to return it. Now he has his own copy and entertains his grandmother and I with new tricks every time we see him.

Reveals the secrets of over 120 magic tricks using cards, matches, rope, silk, thimbles and money, shown in over 1000 photographs

About the Author Nicholas Einhorn is a full "Gold Star" member of The Inner Magic Circle and has won a number of industry awards for his work, including: The Magic Circle Centenary Close-up Magician 2005; F.I.S.M. (World Magic Championships) Award Winner 2003; The Magic Circle Close-up Magician of The Year 2002; and The Magic Circle Close-up Magician of The Year 1996. Nicholas is one of the UK's busiest magicians, and as well as performing at events throughout Europe, he uses his magic skills to build crowds at business trade shows and exhibitions around the globe. As a magic consultant, Nicholas has designed the special effects for a number of large-scale stage productions, as well as being a consultant on the film Bright Young Things in 2003, directed by Stephen Fry. To date his illusions have been purchased and performed by magicians all over the world, including some of the biggest names in magic, such as Paul Daniels and David Copperfield. Freeman is a highly-experienced professional photographer as well as the creator of many books including the acclaimed architectural volumes London Revealed and Moscow Revealed.