Donna M. Malone What a masterpiece! I am not sure that "encyclopedia" is a good description for this book, as it is more like a dictionary of terms relating to animal behavior. Having said that, it is truly a MUST HAVE for anyone who has a real interest in animal behavior!

Provides the first general sourcebook for identification and treatment of most behavior problems encountered in livestock and pets. Hundreds of described behaviors are arranged alphabetically, cross-referenced, and cited to sources for additional information.
