Lots of step by step information on how to get yourself prepared for an interview. Very easy to read, small pin-pointed paragraphs of specific information on key topics within each chapter that leads you through the process. Each chapter contains a quote/saying to open your mind to new possibilities and he concludes each chapter with a summary. I particularly like how he starts the book out with "knowing what you want." Highly recommend reading and using this book!!! Keith Schmidt - Iowa, USA

In job market, the last thing you need is a trick interview question that stumps you right out of the job of your dreams. This title intends to transform the way you approach job hunting, write cover letters, make first impressions and ace crucial interviews.

An in-depth, humorous and above all practical guide to searching for and getting your dream job. - Carla Cringle, People Manager, Red Bull UK Through his wealth of knowledge, Charlie passes on these expert tools and tricks of the trade to get the most out of where you are now and where you want to go. - Will Jefferson, Professional Cricketer This book successfully breaks down the job seeking process into well thought out chapters and manageable tips.
