If I had this guide prior writing my first book, I would have understood the process better and it wouldn't have been as stressful. I'm reading it from cover to cover before I embark on writing another children's book. Thanks!

This book is a guide to finding your niche in creating books for children. It will take you from start to finish with examples of how to start a story board to how to coordinate with editors and illustrators for your final product, a children's book for all to enjoy!

About the Author Rochelle O'Neal Thorpe has written over five children's books and is the publisher of a collaborative enterprise for children's books: Wiggles Press, which she founded in 2009.
