An essential book to have for ANY nursing student, whether close to graduation, or just starting out!By Sweet PeaI highly recommend this book to any nursing student! It is never too early in your nursing career to get this book, in fact, the earlier the better! It really helped me see what areas I needed to improve to make myself the best candidate possible. I am now much better at networking, and marketing myself more effectively. The suggestion to make some business cards for myself was priceless, I have already impressed a few people with them. My resume is much stronger than it used to be, and I feel much better about the job search that lies ahead of me after graduation (yes, even in this job market!). I know it is tough out there for us new grads, so do yourself a favor and get this book!

Graduated in May 2015. Got my licence in August then opened the book. Huh! I could have done without it. However, good advices regarding resumes and cover letters. It goes on an on on things your teachers will tell you an it really doesn't give you anything that stands out for Nursing so... don't waste your money.

Good book - quick tips for jobs, but pricey considering those purchasing are unemployed or students.

A must for nursing students, new graduate registered nurses and experienced RNs competing for jobs in today's daunting health care market. You're Hired! features proven strategies to help you effectively communicate your talents and abilities to potential employers.

You only get one chance to make a positive first impression! How fortunate you are to have a resource book to help you in this challenging job market. Each chapter gives you real life situations and helpful tips for every aspect of your job search. --Mary Foley, PhD, RN, UC San Francisco
You're Hired is a dream come true for graduating nursing students seeking employment. All the pieces are there: the exercises prepare you to write a meaningful cover letter and resume as well as prepare for an interview. The book is so easy to read, it is as if the author is having a conversation with the reader. --Sally Morgan, PhD, RN, Nursing Faculty
From the new grad to the professional, You're Hired has the information nurses need to stand out among the hundreds of applicants applying for the few positions available. --Angela Schwab, BSN, RN
About the Author
Brenda Brozek, MAOL, RN, is a Communications Consultant for several professional nursing organizations. She specializes in helping groups and individuals effectively deliver their messages to a variety of audiences. Brenda began her nursing career as an RN in cardiac care at Mercy General Hospital in Sacramento, California. She later became a staff educator and then manager for a regional education department serving more than 5000 employees in Catholic Healthcare West (now Dignity Health) hospitals across Northern California. She conducted many seminars for managers to help them improve their job interview skills and select the best applicants for their open positions. Brenda then customized this popular curriculum to create a highly effective workshop for job seekers, and later, the successful book: You're Hired! A Nurse's Guide to Success in Today's Job Market. A talented public speaker, Brenda has presented at regional, statewide and national professional conferences. Becoming a registered nurse was a second career for Brenda. Prior to joining the nursing profession, she worked for several years in public relations, advertising and marketing. She has a Master's degree in organizational leadership, as well as Baccalaureate degrees in nursing and communications studies.
